

■ Hotdogs for kids' sakes

JOE GIBBONS/THE TELEGRAM

The lovely aroma of the barbecuing season was in the air on Water Street East in St. John's near the National War Memorial over the lunch hour Wednesday. Terry Hudson, a web designer with Target Marketing, tended to the grill as he cooked hotdogs as part of a staff fundraiser for the Big Brothers/Big Sisters upcoming event, Bowl For Kids' Sakes. For $10, staff were able to avail of the hotdogs, pop, homemade cookies and a side salad.
